

2016 CTU RIVER CONSERVATION AND FLY FISHING YOUTH CAMP
A 6 DAY CAMP FOCUSING ON SCIENCE BASED
CONSERVATION AND THE ART OF FLY FISHING

Learn from environmental experts and organizations such as: The US Forest Service, Colorado Parks and Wildlife, the EPA and the Natural Resource Conservation Service

ACADEMIC SESSIONS:

Stream Ecology, Entomology, Hydrology, Invasive Species & Human Impacts on Rocky Mountain Ecosystems

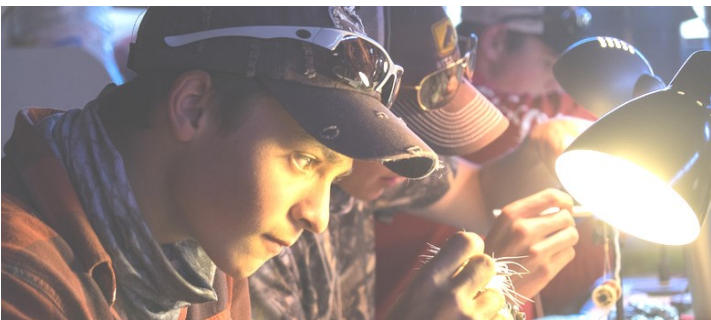

Photo Credit: Mark Lance / River Light Images Photography

JUNE 19TH- 24TH @ BAR N I RANCH NEAR WESTON, COLORADO

AGES 14-18

COST: $450, FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE OFTEN AVAILABLE!

ACTIVITIES MAY INCLUDE:

- A HABITAT RESTORATION PROJECT
- RIVER AND POND SNORKELING TO OBSERVE FISH BEHAVIOR
- INVERTEBRATE AND WATER QUALITY SAMPLING
- JEEP TOUR
- AND OF COURSE....FLY FISHING!!!

APPLICATION AT WWW.COLORADOTU.ORG

- GO TO "WHAT WE DO" SECTION, SELECT YOUTH CAMP -DUE May 15th!

Submit an application with a brief essay on why you would like to attend. Candidates will be selected based on a commitment to learning about conservation.

For more information contact CTU's Youth Education Coordinator Chase Moore at CMoore@tu.org